

I would like to express my strong desire that the no call list remain unchanged. The no call list is a great benefit to consumers by eliminating annoying phone calls and should not be changed.